Mr King attended the meeting & complained that the Thistles on the Bank adjoining his occupation had not been mown. but it was decided that nothing could be done this year. & that the Surveyor be instructed to look over the banks to see that the Conditions of the letting were being carried out & report with a view to the alterations in the Conditions of letting next year.

No person attended to object to his agreement to the rates laid at the last meeting and the Surveyor was instructed to collect same.

Mr Williams reported what he had done as to Mr Strange's application & he was instructed to write Mr Strange suggesting an interview on the spot.

The Clerks were ordered to write Mr Strange with the Board's conditions on which they would allow the Slacker to be put down & at the same time call his attention to the fact that he had encroached upon the Board's land & request him to adjust his fence to the points stated out by the Board's Surveyor / / / /
